

African Textile and Apparel Roadshow in Germany

- Dates: 31. August – 5. September 2025 in Munich and Bönningheim (Hohenstein Institute)
- Participants: 10 Textile and apparel companies and 3 associations from the different partner countries (Egypt, Ethiopia, Ghana, Morocco and Senegal); GIZ (Global Programme; Country Programmes)
- Activities: Participation at MUNICH FABRIC START (Hall 3, Stand A03), Networking and Information Event at Hohenstein Institute

Background and objective: The event is hosted by the Special Initiative (SI) “Decent Work for a Just Transition” – known under the brand Invest for Jobs. Invest for Jobs supports companies in Africa to build business linkages with German and European partners, aiming at improving working conditions, and creating more decent jobs. Through Africa FAN, the programme helps enhance compliance, product quality, and connects apparel manufacturers with buyers in Germany and Europe. The Roadshow aims to promote exchange between African textile and apparel companies and German/ European players along the supply chain with the aim expanding market knowledge and initiating business cooperation.
